Old School Hymnal Foundation From the song of Moses on the shore of the Red Sea, to the hymn at the close of our Lord's first communion, the singing of psalms, hymns and spiritual songs is an essential part of worship for God's people. In the wisdom of the Glorious Creator, God created man in his image, which included a voice - a uniquely human instrument capable of producing melody. And so, our Lord delights in worship with the voice of praise. From the psalms composed by David on the grassy hillsides of Bethlehem, to the thunderous chorus of "Holy! Holy! Holy!" offered by the seraphim in the throne room of heaven, expressions of singing in worship are evident. And notably, Zephaniah declared the Lord rejoices in singing Himself: "The LORD thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing." (Zephaniah 3:17). Truly, God's people rejoice in songs of praise through the ages. By singing Psalms in the early church, in quiet whispers of praise in dens and caves of the earth during persecution, singing praises to our Lord endures. In recent centuries, times of revival and despair alike have sown seeds of creativity, and hymns of praise blossomed and bloomed. As such, visionary men like Elder Lee Hanks, saw fit to collect hymns, true to God's word in sentiment, and place them in hymnbook form to use in worship. To commemorate the 100th year of the Old School Hymnal, with hearts set on the glory of God, and enveloped by our rich history of worship in song, we the members of the newly restructured, non-profit Old School Hymnal Foundation Board, humbly present to you the Centennial Edition. In 1920, the founding members of the 1st edition presented a compilation of beloved hymns. In updating the hymnal, we prayerfully labored to honor their focus, endeavoring to maintain treasured, long-standing hymns, while also offering new compositions. We believe the Lord blessed us to remain true to scripture and honor Him with the words and melodies selected. In following the footsteps of our forefathers in hymnody, we echo the words of Elders Monsees and Pittman, in the preface to the 3rd edition, as we tried to include "the best old songs, and some of the new good ones..." In recent years, the Holy Spirit has blessed the creation of new hymns, born from the souls of redeemed children of God, moved and affected by the influence of grace. In honoring the spirit of past editions, and striving to obey the unction of the Holy Spirit, we are united in the desire to share some new songs. Having begun in the fall of 2019, and concluded in the midst of uncertain times, we believe a Providential blessing is in the timing of this effort. As unprecedented upheaval and abject fear prevails, we are compelled to present a point of light to push back against the darkness. While angry, dispirited voices reach a fever pitch, as the vitriolic squawk of malicious accusations command our attention, amidst the din of hard speeches and great swelling words, our prayer is that a different sound rises above the fray. In Christian homes, among congregations of Spirit-led worship, and from hearts of weary sinners, may songs of praise and voices of worship rise to adorn and adore the worthy name of Jesus. Accepting full responsibility for omissions, oversights and mistakes, and pleading for the mercy and blessing of God, we give to you this Centennial Edition, trusting the voice of praise will lift up to glorify our resurrected, reigning and returning Savior.

The Myers Park Baptist Church Hymnal (Classic Reprint)

Forgotten Books Excerpt from The Myers Park Baptist Church Hymnal In 1988 in an attempt to express that message in the distinctive tradition of the Myers Park Baptist Church, the then-senior - minister, Dr. R. Eugene Owens, asked the Board of Worship and the Board of Deacons to appoint a task force to review the 1933 Presbyterian Hymnal used since 1952 by the church, and to consider what additional hymn resources may be needed to enhance the worship of God in this place. The task force carefully studied the 1933 hymnal and dozens of other hymnals and hymnal supplements produced in the past sixty years by both denominational and non-denominational publishers. The task force concluded that no single publication quite embodied the theological, devotional, and liturgical life of our particular community. Often, the hymnals contained language that was either doctrinally specific for a particular denomination, or included hymns in languages for particular ethnic communities, or did not express adequately the theological and cultural life of our congregation. Moreover, the wedding of music and text sometimes fell short of what we wanted for congregational worship. After much serious discussion of all these issues, the task force concluded we needed a hymnal reflecting this community's specific historical, theological, and liturgical traditions. This meant not only retaining the familiar hymns of the 1933 hymnal but also reclaiming some hymns not in that hymnal which Baptists and other Christians have considered important faith expressions for generations. As the writing of hymns is a dynamic art that continues to this day, the task force also considered hundreds of hymns written before and since 1933 for inclusion in the present hymnal. In the end, what guided the creation of this hymnal was a prayerful commitment to provide a rich variety of faith expressions for this Christian community to sing to the glory of God. Excerpt: ... out to draw me near. 3 The while I fain would tread the heavenly way, Evil is ever with me day by day; Yet on mine ears the gracious tidings fall, 'Repent, believe, thou shalt be loosed from all.' mf 4 It is the voice of Jesus that I hear; His are the hands stretched out to draw me near, And His the blood that can for all atone, And set me faultless there before the throne. 5 O Great Absolver, grant my soul may wear The lowliest garb of penitence and prayer, That in the Father's courts my glorious dress May be the garment of Thy righteousness. 6 Yea, Thou wilt answer for me, righteous Lord; Thine all the merit, mine the great reward; Thine the sharp thorns, and mine the golden crown; Mine the life won, and Thine the life laid down. 7 Nought can I bring, dear Lord, for all I owe, Yet let my full heart what it can bestow; Like ointment sweet, let my devotion prove, Forgiven greatly, how I greatly love. S. J. Stone. 5. p 'A little while' to keep the oil from failing, 'A little while' faith's flickering lamp to trim; cr And then, the Bridegroom's coming footsteps hailing, To haste to meet Him with the bridal hymn I Jane Crtwdson. Give ear unto my cry: hold not Thy peace at my teart.--Ps. zxxix. 12. An innumerable company of Angela.--Hub. xii. 22. f 1 TTARK, hark, my soul! angelic songs are swelling O'er earth's green fields and ocean's wave-beat shore: How sweet the truth those blessed strains are telling Of that new life when sin shall be no more! Angels of Jesus, angels of light, Singing to welcome the pilgrims of the night! 2 Onward we go, for still we hear them singing, 'Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come '; And, through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing, The music of the gospel leads us home: Angels of Jesus, angels of light, ...
