THE BENEFICIARY

FORTUNE, MISFORTUNE, AND THE STORY OF MY FATHER

Riverhead Books Janny Scott's investment banker great-grandfather built an eight-hundred-acre estate on Philadelphia's Main Line. There was an obligation to protect it, a license to enjoy it, a duty to pass it on - but it was impossible to know in advance how all that extraordinary good fortune might influence the choices made over a lifetime. In this warmly felt tale of an American family's fortunes, journalist Janny Scott excavates the rarefied world that shaped her charming, unknowable father, Robert Montgomery Scott. The book is an incisive look at the weight of inheritance, the tenacity of addiction, and the power of buried secrets.

ENDING THE TOBACCO HOLOCAUST

Every day, at least 1,191 Americans die before their time. They die painful, lingering deaths that could have been prevented. Every three days, as many citizens die from their own smoking habit, or from exposure to second-hand smoke, as died in the Sept 11 tragedy. Each and every pack of cigarettes costs American taxpayers $40 in higher medical premiums, unavailability of health services, and other hidden financial drains. And every year, 925 out of every 1,000 smokers who try to quit on their own fail to stay smoke-free for a year-while hundreds of thousands of children become addicted to nicotine. Dr. Michael Rabinoff, a respected psychiatrist who holds two patents and has published repeatedly in the New England Journal of Medicine and other top-flight journals, shows the health and financial suicide we commit by allowing tobacco companies to continue doing business as usual-and, like any good doctor, provides a detailed prescription for what to do about it: simple actions you can take to save the lives of millions around the world.

DATERVIEWING

EXPOSING THE BIASES THAT INFLUENCE HIRING DECISIONS

iUniverse Written for business professionals at all levels and companies of all sizes, Daterviewing reaches deep into the fundamentals of emotion, where prejudices run rampant and first impressions rule. In an engaging and entertaining manner, nationally known interviewing and staff-retention strategist Greg Churchman reflects upon the dating world as he encourages business leaders to recognize the similar biases that develop when they select employees and candidates for employment. Churchman's process for selecting qualified employees--and keeping them on board--is based on specific sets of criteria developed for each available position. Following are some easy-to-follow steps to help you to hire successfully: Surveying-Distinguish what you want versus what your company needs in an employee Searching-Learn where to find candidates Screening-Develop and ask questions that relate to the desired characteristics Selecting-Make the best selection by avoiding biases Sustaining-Examine differences between successful and failed professional and personal relationships A poor choice in any relationship can be very costly, both financially and emotionally. Daterviewing explores how interviewing is strikingly similar to dating, shows how to avoid the drawbacks of both, and assists you in making choices that will help you succeed.

CREATING THE BUILT ENVIRONMENT

THE PRACTICALITIES OF DESIGNING, CONSTRUCTING AND OWNING BUILDINGS

Routledge We spend most of our lives in buildings and almost every building is unique. The purpose of this book is to explain what buildings are and to provide an integrated overview of how they are built and sustained. The book does not presume any specialist knowledge of buildings, seeking instead to explain why the different groups involved in designing, constructing, managing and occupying them follow certain procedures. It is particularly concerned with the generation and circulation of information between these groups. In taking this view, the book considers the recommendations of Sir Michael Latham's 1994 report Constructing the Team which called for better cohesion and communication between specialists in the construction industry.

UNDERSTANDING THE CITY THROUGH ITS MARGINS

PLURIDISCIPLINARY PERSPECTIVES FROM CASE STUDIES IN AFRICA, ASIA AND THE MIDDLE EAST

Routledge Cities the world over and in particular developing countries suffer from uneven development and inequality. This is often coupled with the view that these inequalities constitute unfortunate anomalies. In contrast, this edited volume draws out the ways in which the city has not been able to exist without its margins, both materially, ideationally, and socially. In this book the margins are, first, the mirrors of the city and, second, a fundamental route through which various centers can legitimate and sustain their power. Contemporary case studies are compared to a number of those from history with the accent on Asia, Africa and the Middle East, and engage with the underlying theoretical questions of what is the urban margin and what is marginality in urban society and spaces?

BEHIND THE RED DOOR

SEX IN CHINA

Karaoke bars with prostitute hostesses are standard fare in Chinese cities, college students accept jobs as highly paid mistresses, sex stores are as common as corner convenience shops, venereal disease and HIV/AIDS are soaring, and China's social media are buzzing with conversation and debate about sex. The story of sex in China is as improbable as it is intriguing. China hand Richard Burger takes the reader on an exploration of the country's complex transformation from a once sexually open society to one of the most prudish, followed by a stunning turn in recent years towards new sexual freedoms
